Audition Requirements

Drama

General

Warm up and teacher led drama games and improvisation activities

Specialisation

Prepare a monologue to present. You can use one provided or choose your own.

Music

General

Warm up and teacher led development of a song.

Specialisation

Bring one piece to perform. You can have an accompaniment if suitable (live or CD backing track). These auditions are held in the music room where we have a piano, keyboard, drum kits, guitars, bass and amplifier. Suggested time 1–2 minutes. Make sure you warm up (long notes and a scale or two) and tune if applicable.

Dance

General

Warm up and stretch. Workshop led by teacher.

Specialisation

One minute solo performance in the style of your choice. Bring your music. We will have a CD player, bluetooth connectivity or media player. Make sure you warm up and stretch beforehand.

On the day.....

- Wear comfortable clothes you can do dance and drama exercises in. No uniform.
- You will need covered shoes (although we go barefoot in the Performing Arts Centre).
- Bring snacks and water.
- Be relaxed and confident.

Audition Monologues

Girl

I will never forgive my mother for calling me Erica with a surname like Yurken.

When an emergency teacher is taking our grade (we get a lot of emergency teachers at our school because the ordinary ones are often away with nervous problems), the emergency teacher says something like, 'Girl in the end row with the dark hair, what's your name?' But before I can answer, kids screech out 'Erk!' Or 'Yuk!' Or 'Gherkin!' Except Barry Hollis who always yells out something worse, but emergency teachers are given a counselling session by the Principal before they come into our room, so they know enough to pretend not to hear Barry Hollis.

Erk, Yuk, or Gherkin. When I grow up and leave school and leave Barringa East forever, I plan to change my name to something really elegant. It is a waste of time doing it before then. Elegance just doesn't fit in Barringa East...

Boy

Bull! I don't believe you! They're bein' slack! If they can sew a bloke's foot on and put a new heart in somebody surely they can cure a bit of cancer! You've seen those Sydney hospitals on telly; they got everything. They could cure a horse with its head on backwards down there. What about the man in the newsagents? He had cancer on his head and they cured him. Expect me to believe that you can get the cricket from India and get bombs that could blow the whole world up and robots and space ships and they can't cure a bit of cancer! Bull! They're just not tryin'! Really slack. If I was the Prime Minister they'd be askin' the Queen of England for the world's best doctor's phone number. I bet the world's best doctor is right there beside her in London. London!

Tips for Your Auditions

A few tips to help you prepare for your audition on 25 June at Karabar High School.

General Tips

- Come along.
- Be prepared.
- Show us your best skill/s.

Music – Instrumental

- Make sure you have prepared a piece that is within your ability range. Discuss this with your teacher.
- Have a controlled or purposeful start and finish to your piece.
- Ensure your instrument is tuned and warmed up (if applicable).
- Find a time to make eye contact with the audience.

Music – Vocal

- Prepare a song in your vocal range that suits your voice. Discuss this with your teacher.
- Have a backing track that you have practised with. Make sure it doesn't have the original voice on it.
- Work on your intonation (pitch) and breathing.
- Make eye contact with the audience.

Dance

- If you have a dance teacher, show them your choreography prior to the audition for some feedback. It is okay to use someone else's choreography but you must ask their permission.
- Make sure your movements are strong and extend right through your limbs.
- Show energy.

Drama

- You can use the monologue supplied or prepare your own.
- If you prepare your own, make sure it is appropriate and that it allows you to develop a character.
- Know your monologue by heart and create a character. Use eye contact, facial expressions and some movement.

To discuss further, please feel free to contact Alison Cronan on 62984333 or 0416 294 155

Thanks, and we look forward to working with you!
